

Text

Last edited—January 21, 2015

Chapter Nine
Solitude

Ushering My Soul into the Healing Silences of God

1 - I can expect at some point in life to long to go deeper with God. But I will need help in how to proceed. Solitude offers a time-tested way.

2 - What I have experienced in life with God may have left me empty and unfulfilled. There may be unwanted behaviors I am unable to change.

3 - In solitude I withdraw, for a time, from social contact, physical movement, and sounds (except perhaps from the gentle sounds of nature).

4 - I offer my time and myself to God as a gift of love. Waiting in quietness and stillness, my soul comes to rest. It then reaches new clarity.

5 - For millennia solitude and silence have shaped the lives of our fathers/mothers in the Judeo-Christian faith. Silence completes solitude.

6 - Moses—God took him from Pharaoh's court and formed him 40 years in the desert. God was shaping one of history's most influential leaders.

Paragraph Style

Body

Font

Verdana

Regular

B

I

U

~~S~~

Alignment

Line Spacing

Paragraph Spacing

Before

